Important notes:

This guide is a summary only. For the full terms and conditions you should refer to the policy documentation. A copy of the policy documentation can be obtained by contacting England Netball or Endsleigh Insurance (Brokers) Ltd. Contact details can be found on page 16.

Insurance policies require those covered to disclose all information that would influence a prudent insurers interpretation of a risk, whether to accept the risk and at what terms and conditions. Failure to do so may give an insurer the right to avoid the policy.

Helping you improve player safety:

Risk Management is a process of systematically identifying risks and eliminating or reducing the likelihood and consequences of an accident occurring. Even with a basic of risk management systems in place, a Netball Club will be better equipped to provide a safe environment for all players, officials and volunteers. It will also help England Netball and its members to continue to benefit from a comprehensive and competitively-priced insurance programme.

To help, England Netball has developed a Risk Assessment Checklist designed to highlight issues that can be addressed to reduce the risk of injuries; its proper use should also assist a Clubs defence if somebody seeks compensation as a result of a loss or injury.

The Checklist and Checklist Procedures can be found on page 14. We would encourage you to share these documents with your Club members and key match day organisers.

The 2015/16 programme:

England Netball and Endsleigh Insurance (Brokers) Ltd are delighted to continue their partnership throughout 2015/2016. .

Managing Risk and Potential Claims

Risk Assessment Checklist procedures:

We recommend that you complete the following Risk Assessment Checklist before any game (where an umpire or competition official has not been required to complete a risk assessment) and that it should become part of the overall risk management culture of your Club. The main aim is to create awareness of situations that may contribute to an injury and rectify them where possible.

Who should complete them?

All Clubs competing should take part in the completion of the checklist. The form asks for a two representatives to sign the form once they are satisfied with the conditions.

If the Club is responsible for proceedings on game day (i.e. shared common ground), then a Club representative may take responsibility for the completion of the form. However, the participating Clubs should still review the questions and sign the form to ensure that they are satisfied with the conditions prior to the commencement of play.

All Clubs should choose a suitable person that will be responsible for this activity (and a backup if he/she is not available).

When should they complete them?

The checklist should be completed prior to the commencement of play of the first game on game day.

What if the conditions change after completion?

If the conditions change during a game or at another time during the day the checklist process should be revisited. The earlier completion of the form should not result in play continuing even where it is acknowledged that it is potentially unsafe. However, the full extent of the checklist process would probably not be required.

In the event that the conditions do change significantly enough for this to be revisited, the situation should either be rectified (e.g. glass removed) or the competing Clubs should meet to decide whether conditions are too dangerous to continue with play (e.g. extreme storm conditions). Ultimately, the responsibility for these situations will rest with the Clubs. But the safety of the players, spectators etc. should be the overriding factor.

Will I be held responsible if I sign the form?

The intention of the checklist is not to hold Club officials responsible should someone get injured. It is simply a form that facilitates a discussion between the Clubs/officials about the overall state of the playing condition. By signing the form there is a sense of formalising the process. However, insurance cover does protect Clubs and officials in the case of wrongful acts or errors, although they still have a duty of care to provide safe conditions for participants. Cover will not exist for officials who show wilful negligence or disregard for these responsibilities.

What happens to the checklist once it has been completed?

The home Club should retain the original checklist. These forms should be retained for a minimum of 3 years for future reference.

What if one Club declines to sign the form?

If one Club declines to sign the form due to dissatisfaction of playing conditions, the risk should be identified and rectified to a standard that provides acceptable safe conditions for all parties. Once both Clubs are satisfied, the form should be able to be signed and play commenced. If conditions prove too unsatisfactory and are unable to be rectified, common sense should prevail. Play should never commence until safe conditions are available to all participants.

Accidents

In the event of an accident, ensure that:

- The first-aider is called immediately to administer to anyone with an injury
- The Accident Report form is completed and filed for future reference

Other important considerations

- Use only affiliated umpires, coaches, officials, etc. who are appropriately qualified, or your own team's insurance may be affected
- Participate only with other affiliated teams, or your own team's insurance may be affected.

FCA Complaints Procedure

Providing an excellent customer service is important to Endsleigh and in the vast majority of cases this is exactly what you will receive. However, just occasionally, something goes wrong and a customer, unfortunately, has cause to complain.

This can usually be best achieved by contacting the person you originally dealt with. That person will expect to hear from you if you are unhappy and will aim to resolve your complaint on the same day. While we would like to hear from you by telephone, should you decide to write to us, we will call you with the same objective in mind.

If an immediate solution cannot be achieved because further investigation is necessary, we will let you know straight away. We will always acknowledge receipt of your complaint within 5 working days and do everything we can to speedily resolve the problem. Should our investigation take longer than anticipated, which will only happen if the circumstances are particularly complex, we will explain why and we will make sure you are provided with regular updates.

CLAIMS NOTIFICATION GUIDELINES

This notification sheet tells you when you should report an incident/accident to England Netball, Membership Department. It is important that all incidents that may give rise to a claim are reported to us as soon as possible after the event. This will enable Insurers to carry out investigations at an early stage while information relating to the claim remains fresh in the mind. This will also ensure that you are complying fully with your policy terms and conditions.

In order to achieve this, we would ask that you notify us immediately of any incident that involves:

- A fatal accident
- An injury involving either referral to or actual hospital treatment
- Any allegations of libel/slander
- Any allegations of Professional Negligence i.e. arising out of tuition, coaching or advice given
- Any investigation under any child protection legislation
- Any circumstances involving damage to third party property

AN INJURY IS DEFINED AS:

- Any head injury that requires medical treatment (doctor/hospital)
- Any fracture other than to fingers, thumbs or toes
- Any amputation, dislocation of the shoulder, hip knee or spine
- Loss of sight (whether temporary or permanent)
- Any injury resulting from electrical shock or burn, leading to unconsciousness or requiring resuscitation or admittance to hospital for more than 24 hours
- Loss of consciousness caused by asphyxia or by exposure to harmful substance or biological agent

Please note the above list is not exhaustive and if you are unsure as to whether an incident should be reported, then please do not hesitate to contact Endsleigh.

We would remind you that in NO circumstances should you admit liability or agree to pay for any damage caused as this may prejudice the position of Insurers and COULD result in the withdrawal of any indemnity.

Finally, please note that this is a liability policy where insurers decide if negligence attaches to you. Therefore any payments you make to any third parties will not necessarily be re-imbursed.

INCIDENTS RECORDING GUIDELINES

We would recommend that a designated person within your organisation is made responsible to record any reportable accident. Records must be kept for at least 3 years. Names and addresses of any possible witnesses should also be recorded. From 31st December 2003 it is a requirement to use a new style accident book that is compliant with data protection legislation. It is available from HSE books. It also contains information of first aid and guidance on how to prevent accidents occurring in the first place.

The register must contain the following information relating to all reportable accidents or dangerous occurrences:

- Date and time of accident
- As regards a person at work-full name, occupations, nature of injury and age
- As regards a person not at work - Full name, status (e.g. customer) nature of injury, age
- Place where accident occurred
- A brief description of the circumstances
- Method by which the event was reported.
